

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION
Baptism of the Lord

John answered them all, 'I baptize you with water; but he who is mightier than I is coming...he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit...' (Luke 3:16)

The Catholic Catechism states that "Jesus' immersion in the water is a sign for all human beings of the need to die to themselves to do God's will." In other words, as baptized Catholics there is only one gift that we need to give to Jesus – the gift of ourselves. Surrender yourself to God, place your trust in Him and allow the Holy Spirit to work through you for the greater glory of God.

FOOD for THOUGHT

WD-40 AND DUCT TAPE

Do It Yourself (DIY) mechanics claim that you really need only two things in your toolbox: WD-40 and duct tape.

Is something moving that shouldn't be moving? Grab the duct tape.

Is something stuck that should be moving? Give it a shot of WD-40.

Dr. Suzanne Degges-White, writing in Psychology Today, suggests that our most important relationships can be kept in good working order by the relational equivalents of duct tape and WD-40. This is especially true when it comes to three significant behaviors.

The first is ACCEPTANCE.

Sharing life with another person pretty much guarantees that before long, in one way or another, you're going to drive each other crazy. But what happens next can make all the difference.

Whenever someone hurts us, we typically come face to face with an impulse to strike back. Acceptance means choosing a better way to respond. "Being able to let go of negative knee-jerk retaliatory behaviors is like a quick shot of WD-40," says Degges-White.

Otherwise we'll get stuck in that old, familiar, you-hurt-me-so-now-I-get-to-sulk-or-strike-back mentality.

Here's how the apostle Paul puts it in Colossians 3:13 (The Message): "Be even-tempered, content with second place, quick to forgive an offense. Forgive as quickly and completely as the Master forgave you."

The second behavior is SUPPORT.

Now we're talking duct tape. "Some of the more common

Behind each priest, there is a demon fighting for his fall. If we have the language to criticize them. We must have twice as much to pray for them.

LE BAPTÊME DU SEIGNEUR C

Me connais-tu?

Solidaire de l'humanité

Il est venu, celui dont Jean disait qu'il n'était « pas digne de dénouer la courroie de ses sandales ». Il a pris notre chair, s'est fait solidaire de notre humanité jusqu'à se ranger du côté des pécheurs. Par son baptême, Jésus manifeste sa solidarité entière avec l'humanité pour la renouveler, y déposer l'amour infini et miséricordieux de son Père et notre Père. Une nouvelle naissance nous est offerte, soyons dans la joie!

Seigneur notre Dieu, lors du baptême de ton Fils, tu l'as consacré par ton Esprit comme Messie élu et envoyé pour annoncer le salut aux pauvres. Accorde-nous de trouver dans notre propre baptême la joie de nous engager au service des autres pour mieux te rendre gloire. Nous te le demandons par Jésus, le Christ, notre Seigneur. Amen.
