

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION
2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

“To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.” (1 Corinthians 12:7)

St. Paul tells us that God has blessed each of us for a reason. How has God blessed you? Are you using your gifts according to God’s plan? How are you helping to build God’s kingdom here on earth? Remember that if you don’t do the work God planned for you, no one else can do it. Live the life God has intended for you, feel His love, peace and joy!

2ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today’s Readings:
Isaiah 62:1-5; 1 Corinthians 12:4-11; John 2:1-11(66)

Service with a Smile

Service mottos abound, ranging from “The customer is always right” to “Ours is not to questions why, our is but to do or die.” At a particular nuptial celebration in Cana, servants in the middle of a supply crisis were told to follow the instructions of a young man who made puzzling demands of them. As a result of their obedience, ordinary water became fine wine. The crisis turned into a triumph. When we listen to Jesus and act on what we hear — the very definition of “obedience” — marvels ensue. Gospel always starts out sounding incredible, until it’s reality.

FOOD for THOUGHT

JUST HOW INDEPENDENT ARE YOU?

When author and sociologist Tony Campolo was little, walking to school by himself was not a wise option. Who knew what might happen to a young boy? Tony’s mother paid a neighbor girl, Harriet, five cents a day to make sure he arrived and returned safely. This wounded his pride. Why should a chunk of the Campolo net worth go to an outsider when he could take care of himself perfectly well? Tony’s mom was not a pushover. It took weeks of pleading before she finally released Harriet from her job. She made Tony promise to be exceedingly careful. He could have the nickel – as long as he put it into a bank account to buy Christmas presents for his sisters. Tony never got into trouble, and hundreds of nickels stayed on the Campolo household asset sheet. Years later, Tony still felt great about how things had turned out. At a family gathering, long after his mother was gone, he boasted to his sisters that walking to school by himself was evidence of his independent spirit. And it had definitely yielded superior presents for the two of them at Christmas. They laughed out loud. “Did you really think,” they asked, “that you went to school alone and came home alone? Every day when you left the house, Mom followed you. And when you came out of the school at the end of the day, she was there. She always made sure you didn’t notice her. But she was watching over you, just to make sure you were safe.” Then they asked, “Didn’t you think it was strange that when you got home it took a minute for Mom to answer your knock at the front door? That’s because she first had to run around to the back door.” All those years, Tony had had the distinct impression he was taking care of himself. But someone who treasured him was watching over him the whole time.

You may have the distinct impression that you’re bravely making your way through the world all alone – failing, succeeding, hurting, and hoping. But God has provided mothers and fathers and teachers and mentors and colleagues to accomplish what he himself has been doing all along: “The LORD watches over you— the LORD is your shade at your right hand; the sun will not harm you by day, nor the moon by night. The LORD will keep you from all harm— he will watch over your life; the LORD will watch over your coming and going both now and forevermore” (Psalm 121:5-8).

PRIÈRE D'OUVERTURE

Dieu de tendresse et d'amour, tu t'invites sans cesse dans nos vies. Fais que nous puissions reconnaître les signes que tu nous donnes au jour le jour. Que ta parole, comme le bon vin, remplisse nos cœurs de joie. Fais que nous puissions ainsi goûter à ta présence qui illumine l'ordinaire de nos jours. Nous te le demandons par Jésus, le Christ, notre Seigneur et notre Dieu, qui vit avec toi et l'Esprit pour les siècles des siècles. Amen.

La deuxième quête du 27 janvier ira au fonds de construction et celle du 3 février ira pour défrayer le coût d'adhésion au B.C. Catholic, estimé à 20,00$ la famille. Merci de votre soutien.

Inspirational Quotes:

Being strong doesn't mean you have to stay and fight all the battles and petty arguments that come your way. Being strong means you don't have to stay and respond to rude remarks. Don't retort by throwing insults back at them. It's what they want. Keep your dignity and don't lower yourself to their level. True strength is being adult enough to walk away from the nonsense with your head held high.

It's during the worst storms of your life that you will get to see the true colors of the people who say they care about you.

Stop looking back. There is nothing there. Your healing, blessings and miracles are ahead of you, not behind you.

Never give up hope because your miracle could be right around the corner. Stay positive.

Someday I'll be able to look back on today and be grateful for being strong but today I'm just trying to keep my strength up and make it to tomorrow.

LE 2e DIMANCHE DU TEMPS ORDINAIRE C

Quand Dieu s'invite dans nos vies

Placé au début du temps ordinaire, ce dimanche prolonge en quelque sorte le temps de Noël, caractérisé par la manifestation du Seigneur dans notre monde. La lecture évangélique nous dit qui est Jésus et quelle sera sa mission. Il se fait proche de nous au point de nous 'épouser'. En lui, les noces de Dieu et de l'humanité sont définitives. Son sang est le vin de la Nouvelle Alliance.

Dieu notre Père, nous sommes venus puiser des forces neuves dans ce repas de noces. Que ton Esprit nous soutienne afin que nos efforts pour être signes de ton amour portent des fruits. Aide-nous à témoigner de ta présence pour que d'autres aussi croient en toi. Nous te le demandons par Jésus le Christ, notre Seigneur. Amen.
